More like a holiday retreat than a home,

this picturesque property is located on 7,899m2 of bushland. The generous entertainer's verandah is like an outdoor room, complete with TV fitting and views across the forest to Mt Coot-tha. It's the perfect spot to watch the native wildlife at sunset kangaroos, wallabies, lorikeets, even the odd echidna stops by. A separate undercover patio is ideal for barbeques, making this home an entertainer's dream. Close to the National Park, offering walking tracks and bike trails.

Along with mountainous views and plenty of room for entertaining, this leafy property boasts low maintenance gardens, with grey water irrigation; town water, utility room under the house; chook shed.
